YOU ARE INVITED TO HEAR RACHEL’S STORY

“160,000 STUDENTS SKIP SCHOOL EVERY DAY FOR FEAR OF BEING BULLIED.”
– National Center for School Engagement

It doesn’t have to be this way. Experience the remarkable story of Rachel Scott, the first victim of the Columbine High School tragedy, who knew her life would impact the world. Learn about the movement that is awakening transformation in millions of lives, and promoting safer, more connected schools.

Please note – This presentation contains content that may be upsetting to students. It is recommended for 7th grade and above.

Please contact Jennifer Baker, Social Emotional Learning Specialist at Jennifer.Baker2@jeffco.k12.co.us if you have any questions. Thank you and hope to see you there!