Paint Your Spot	Paint Your Spot: I’m excited to announce that Juniors and Seniors can now show their school spirit by “Painting Your Parking Spot for Homecoming”. Students wanting to paint their parking spot for the year will be charged $100 (in addition to the parking permit fee). The most creative parking spot will “Win a Library Parking Pass for the School Year”! Beginning after school on Monday, September 13th, students are encouraged to demonstrate their creativity. A panel of teachers, administrators and Student Government representatives will judge the student parking spaces on Friday morning, September 17th and the winner will be announced during the Homecoming Pep-Assembly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Only Juniors and Seniors with parking spaces are allowed to paint their space. • Only the student that the parking space is registered to may decorate their parking space. • Damage to the parking space will be assessed and a fine will be charged to the student’s account. In some circumstances, a student may lose their parking permit for the calendar year. • Multiple students can help each other, but only with the permission of the student that purchased that parking space. • Students may not deface or alter in any way another student’s parking spot. • Any reference to alcohol, drugs, or gangs will not be permitted. No use of profanity or any language in bad taste. The Conifer administration will have the final say in all spots. • All trash must be disposed of in a designated trashcan. • The sole purpose of allowing students to “paint their parking space” is to build school spirit. If you have any other intentions, you do not need to participate. • With any school activity that involves rules, there must be consequences for those who choose to not follow the guidelines. The punishment will range from a warning to a suspension at the discretion of the Conifer administration. Remember that there are cameras all over the parking lot, and you will get caught if you vandalize another person’s parking space. • These guidelines will also be posted on the Conifer High School web page.
